SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

A Registered Mortgage Broker Pursuant To
Article XII-D of the New York Banking Law

-----X

This Settlement Agreement ("Agreement") is made and entered into by and between WC Financial in lieu of its true corporate name Warshaw Capital, LLC ("WC Financial") and the State of New York Department of Financial Services ("Department"), collectively the ("Settling Parties"), evidencing an agreement between the Settling Parties to resolve, without a hearing, the violations cited herein by WC Financial of New York State Banking Law Article 12-D, and Part 38 of the General Regulations of the Banking Board ("General Regulations") upon and subject to the terms and conditions hereof.

On October 3, 2011, the Department of Financial Services succeeded to the rights, powers, duties and obligations of the New York State Banking Department. The Superintendent of Financial Services ("Superintendent") similarly succeeded to the Superintendent of Banks. Also, the Banking Board's powers were assumed by the Superintendent.

I.

RECITALS

1. WC Financial, headquartered at 500 Summer Street, Suite 204, Stamford, CT 06901 was granted a registration by the Department of Financial Services April 11, 2006 to engage in the business of a mortgage broker pursuant to Article 12-D of the New York Banking Law (“Banking Law”).

2. Section 44 of the Banking Law provides, in part, that the New York Superintendent of Financial Services (“Superintendent”) may, in a proceeding after notice and a hearing, require a registered mortgage broker to pay to the people of this State a penalty for a violation of the Banking Law and any regulation promulgated thereunder.

3. Part 38 Section 38.8 of the General Regulations, provide that a mortgage broker may be subject to disciplinary action by the Department for, among other things, violations of Article 12-D of the Banking Law, the regulations promulgated thereunder, or violations of state or federal law indicating that the entity is unfit to engage in the business of a mortgage broker.

4. During a review in 2009, inconsistencies were discovered between the Department’s and the NMLS’ data bases, mainly, that WC Financial was found to be using the unauthorized website www.warshawcapital.com. Later while processing a website authorization application submitted by WC Financial in December of 2009, it came to the Department’s attention that WC Financial also was conducting business under the name Warshaw Capital, LLC on this website. Furthermore, the Department industry letter entitled “Recording Domain Names,” located on the website at www.banking.state.ny.us/mb000601.htm requires that all business addresses, including URL’s/domain names, used by a mortgage banker or a mortgage broker be reported to the Department. For the purposes of Article 12-D of the Banking Law, the domain name of any website used by a licensee/registrant to conduct mortgage banking or brokering activity qualifies as a business address.

5. The Department’s records reflect that WC Financial is only authorized to conduct New York regulated mortgage activities using the name WC Financial or WC Financial in lieu of Warshaw Capital, LLC and was not authorized to use the website www.warshawcapital.com until December 3, 2010. On February 3, 2010, a Cease and Desist Order was sent to WC Financial.

6. Accordingly, WC Financial violated Article 12-D, Section 593-a of the Banking Law, which prohibits a mortgage broker from conducting business in a name different than that shown on their license or branch certificate. Additionally, WC Financial failed to include the legend “Registered Mortgage Broker-NYS Banking” on this website www.warshawcapital.com. The website also did not contain a statement that the “mortgage broker arranges mortgage loans with third party providers”.

7. Accordingly, WC Financial violated Part 38 Section 38.2(a) of the General Regulations, which provide that no mortgage broker shall advertise its business in New York in print or electronic media without including the legend “Registered Mortgage Broker-NYS Banking Department.”

8. Accordingly, WC Financial violated Part 38 Section 38.2(d) of the General Regulations, which provides that any advertisement by a mortgage broker must contain a statement to the effect that the mortgage broker arranges mortgage loans with third party providers.
