

SUMMARY OF NEW PART 420

Section 420.1 summarizes the scope and application of Part 420. It notes that all individuals unless exempt must be licensed under Article 12-E to engage in mortgage loan originator (“MLO”) activities. It also sets forth the basic authority of the Superintendent to revoke or suspend a license.

Section 420.2 sets out the exemptions available to individuals from the general license requirements. Specifically, the proposed regulation includes a number of exemptions, including exemptions for individuals who work for banking institutions as mortgage loan originators and individuals who arrange mortgage loans for family members. Also, individuals who work for mortgage loan servicers and negotiate loan modifications are only subject to the license requirement if required by HUD. The Superintendent is authorized to approve other exemptions for good cause.

Section 420.3 contains a number of definitions of terms that are used in Part 420. These include definitions for “mortgage loan originator,” “originating entity,” “residential mortgage loan” and “loan processor or underwriter”.

Section 420.4 describes the applications procedures for applying for a license as an MLO. It also provides important transitional rules for individuals already engaging in mortgage loan origination activities pursuant to the authority of the prior version of Article 12-E or, in the case of individuals engaged in the origination of manufactured homes, not previously subject to regulation by the Department of Financial Services (formerly the Banking Department).

Section 420.5 describes the circumstances in which originating entities may employ or contract with MLOs to engage in mortgage loan origination activities during the application process.

Section 420.6 sets forth the steps the Superintendent of Financial Services (formerly the Superintendent of Banks) must take upon determining to approve or disapprove an application for an MLO license.

Section 420.7 describes the circumstances when an MLO license is inactive and how an MLO may maintain his or her license during such periods.

Section 420.8 sets forth the circumstances when an MLO license may be suspended or terminated. Specifically, the proposed regulation provides that an MLO license shall terminate if the annual license renewal fee has not been paid or the requisite number of continuing education credits have not been taken. The Superintendent also may issue an order suspending an MLO license if the licensee does not file required reports or maintain a bond. The license of an MLO that has been suspended pursuant to this authority shall automatically terminate by operation of law after 90 days unless the licensee has cured all deficiencies within this time period.

Section 420.12 sets out the requirement that pre-licensing education and continuing education courses and education course providers must be approved by the Nationwide Mortgage Licensing System and Registry (the "NMLS"). This represents a change from the prior law pursuant to which the Superintendent issued such approvals.

Section 420.13 sets forth the pre-licensing testing requirements for applicants for an MLO license. It also sets out the test location requirements and the minimum passing grades to obtain a license.
