

TITLE INSURANCE AGENT PRODUCER INSTRUCTIONS

Insurance Law Section 2102 prohibits any person or business entity from acting as an insurance producer in New York, including as a title insurance agent, without a license. Insurance Law Section 2101(y) defines “title insurance agent” as any authorized or acknowledged agent of a title insurance corporation, and any subagent or other representative of such an agent, who or which for commission, compensation, or any other thing of value, performs the following acts in conjunction with the issuance of a title insurance policy:

1. sells, or negotiates the sale of a title insurance policy;
2. evaluates the insurability of title, based upon the performance or review of a title search; and
3. performs one or more of the following functions:
 - A. Collects, remits or disburses title insurance premiums, escrows or other related funds;
 - B. Prepares, amends, marks up or delivers a title insurance commitment or certification of title for the purpose of the issuance of a title insurance policy by a title insurance corporation;
 - C. Prepares, amends or delivers a title insurance policy on behalf of a title insurance corporation; or
 - D. Negotiates the clearance of title exceptions, in connection with the issuance of a title insurance policy.

This does not include any regular salaried officer or employee of an authorized title insurance corporation or of a licensed title insurance agent, who does not receive a commission or other compensation for services, when the commission or other compensation is directly dependent upon the amount of title insurance business done.

Qualifications

If New York is the declared home state:

In order to obtain a title insurance agent license in New York, an applicant must complete a New York-approved preclicensing course for title insurance agents and pass the New York State title insurance agent examination unless the applicant can waive the preclicensing requirements based on his/her status as an attorney*. You can search for an approved provider offering the title agent preclicensing course by using the Preclicensing Provider/Course Search at:

<https://myportal.dfs.ny.gov/>

The applicant must complete the preclicensing course prior to sitting for the examination. To register and reserve an examination date, contact PSI Services LLC by telephone at (800) 733 – 9267 or online at: www.psiexams.com

The preclicensing course and exam are waived IF the applicant is a licensed New York State Attorney.

If an applicant is currently licensed as an attorney-at-law in New York State and is in good standing with the New York State Office of Court Administration, then the applicant does not need to complete a preclicensing course or pass a title insurance agent examination. The applicant must submit a certificate of good standing from the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court for the Division where the attorney was admitted.

Non-Resident Title Insurance Agent

If an applicant is a resident of a state other than New York, applicant must be currently licensed and in compliance in the applicant's declared home state. NOTE: The applicant's license information MUST be included in the National Producer Database; if not, the applicant must submit a currently dated certification from the applicant's declared home state.

Terminated Title Insurance Agent License

If an applicant previously passed the written title insurance agent examination in New York and was licensed as a title insurance agent in New York, or if an applicant was licensed as a title insurance agent in New York but did not pass such an examination, then the applicant does not need to complete a New York preclicensing course or pass a New York title insurance agent examination, provided the applicant applies within two years following the date of termination of the applicant's title insurance agent license.

How to Apply

An applicant must submit a fully completed and signed application for a title insurance agent's license, including all applicable attachments, and the licensing fee in accordance with the fee schedule. Please make checks payable to the "Superintendent of Financial Services." Applicants should mail their applications to:

New York State Department of Financial Services
Licensing Bureau
One Commerce Plaza
Albany, NY 12257

Note that the Department will charge $20.00 for each check dishonored by the bank.

Additional Information:

Sponsoring Insurer

A title insurance agent who is licensed with no company appointments is considered to be "inactive." Pursuant to the Insurance Law, in order for a title insurance agent to do business, a Company Appointment must be filed by an insurer on the title insurance agent's behalf within 15 days from the date an agency contract is executed or the first insurance application (Contract/Policy) is submitted to the insurer. Title Insurers have been notified of this requirement.

A title insurance agent may not transact business until a licensed title insurer has filed an appointment on behalf of the title agent.

All licensed title insurers in New York have been notified about the appointment process. If you are seeking to be appointed, please contact the insurer.

To contact the Department with questions, please call (518) 474 – 6630 or (800) 342 – 3736 or email licrenewal@dfs.ny.gov
