The New York Department of Financial Services seeks to build an equitable, more transparent and resilient financial system that benefits New Yorkers and supports business. Through engagement, data-driven regulation, and operational excellence, DFS is responsible for empowering consumers and protecting them from financial harm; ensuring the health and stability of the financial entities we regulate; and driving economic growth through responsible innovation.

The Department of Financial Services is seeking candidates for the position of Associate Attorney Financial Services in the Criminal Investigations Bureau. Duties include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Conducts due diligence research in connection with financial services license applications of student loan servicing, money services, and cryptocurrency companies;
- Reviews and analyzes all documents of the application file including legal documents, personnel information, financial statements, and the applicant's business model;
- Researches and reviews court records, significant litigations, and other public records such as UCC filings, liens, judgments and bankruptcy filings that involve the applicants, their related companies, control parties, officers, and directors;
- Conducts research and analysis of the published findings of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, the Federal Reserve Board, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, the Federal Trade Commission, other federal regulatory agencies, and the regulatory and law enforcement agencies of all 50 states and 16 U.S. territories;
- Issues clearly written and detailed memoranda compromised of findings with facts and analysis to support the recommendations upon which the business units of the Department may rely;
- Assists in reviewing the work of less experienced staff;
- Participates in the investigations of cybersecurity incidents reported by the Department's covered entities, in connection with Department's Cybersecurity Compliance Regulation, 23 NYCRR Part 500, and drafts concise memoranda of findings from each inquiry;
- Identifies trends in cybersecurity risk for the Cybersecurity and Enforcement Divisions, as demonstrated by cybersecurity incidents reported by licensees; and
- Other duties as assigned.
Appointment method:

Candidates must meet the minimum qualifications listed below in order to be eligible for appointment.
