The New York Department of Financial Services seeks to build an equitable, more transparent and resilient financial system that benefits New Yorkers and supports business. Through engagement, data-driven regulation, and operational excellence, DFS is responsible for empowering consumers and protecting them from financial harm; ensuring the health and stability of the financial entities we regulate; and driving economic growth through responsible innovation.

DFS is seeking executive level applicants to fill the position of Assistant Deputy Superintendent for Life in the Life Bureau within the Insurance Division. The Assistant Deputy Superintendent for Life is responsible for assisting the Deputy Superintendent for Life and the Executive Deputy Superintendent for Insurance in all supervisory, regulatory and legislative issues related to the operations and activities of the Life Insurance Bureau.

The Life Bureau is responsible for the supervision and regulation of the entire life insurance industry in New York State and does so by establishing standards for financial solvency, market conduct and corporate oversight and produces regulations, while monitoring the compliance of regulated entities with such standards.

The Assistant Deputy Superintendent for Life will assist in the management oversight of approximately 123 examiners, analysts, actuaries, attorneys, and support staff in the NYC and Albany offices. Working under the general direction of the Deputy Superintendent for Life and closely with others within the Life Bureau, as well as in conjunction with other DFS business units, the position functions with great independence in advancing the Bureau's objectives.

Duties include, but are not limited to:

- Briefs and advises the Deputy Superintendent for Life and the Executive Deputy Superintendent for Insurance on a wide range of supervisory, transactional, regulatory, legislative, policy, enforcement and other matters related to the Life Bureau, including major Insurance Division initiatives;
- Assists in implementation of the Superintendent's goals and objectives for the Life Bureau;
- Assists in the oversight and management of the daily activities and operations of the Life Bureau and its over 120 full time employees, with responsibilities including oversight of the licensing, the National Association of Insurance Commissioners (NAIC) accreditation, and the examination and regulation of all life insurers and related entities;
- Makes recommendations that are relevant to the issues based on a thorough understanding of the short- and long-range impact;
- Assists with establishing policies, procedures, guidelines and appropriate supervisory actions relating to the Life Bureau;
- Presides at or participates in meetings and conferences with insurers, representatives of industry organizations, the NAIC, other governmental agencies and the public on behalf of DFS;
- Ensures that the programs of the Governor and the agency are effectively and expeditiously implemented;
- Works closely with staff in other Divisions of DFS, including the Office of General Counsel, Climate Division, Cyber Division, Legislative Affairs, Consumer Protection and Financial Enforcement Division and others, on life insurance-related decisions, regulations, laws, enforcement matters, projects, and initiatives; and
- Develops a collaborative working relationship with other divisions within DFS.

Preferred Qualifications:

- At least 5 years of experience working in life insurance regulation or for a company in the life insurance sector preferred.
- Strong familiarity with insurance regulation and the New York Insurance Law.
- Strong project management skills, including experience managing many time-sensitive, complex projects simultaneously.
- Strong analytical skills.
- Demonstrated ability to manage human capital and other resources to support short- and long-term priorities.
- Superior written and oral communication skills.
- The ideal candidate will be an attorney or will have actuarial and/or accounting experience.

Appointment method:

Candidates must meet the minimum qualifications listed below in order to be eligible for appointment.
