I, Adrienne A. Harris, Acting Superintendent of Financial Services of the State of New York, pursuant to the authority granted by Sections 202 and 302 of the Financial Services Law, Sections 10, 14, 108.4, 108.5, 202, 235.8-b, 351.2, and 590-a.3 of the Banking Law; and Sections 303, 404, and 413 of the Personal Property Law, do hereby promulgate the following amendments to Title 3 of the Official Compilation of Codes, Rules and Regulations of the State of New York, to take effect upon filing of the Notice of Adoption with the Secretary of State, to read as follows:

(Matter In Brackets Is Deleted; New Matter Is Underlined)

Section 333.1 is amended to read as follows:

The following are the indices approved by the superintendent, for use by lending institutions which are making variable rate closed-end personal loans pursuant to the provisions of Part 33 of this Title, and for use by banking institutions which establish variable rate open-end accounts pursuant to the provisions of Part 90 of this Title:

- (a) the bank prime loan index;
- (b) the indices for one-month, three-month or six-month certificates of deposit sold in the secondary market;
- (c) the indices for the auction averages from the sale of United States three-month, six-month or one-year Treasury bills;
- (d) the indices for three-month, six-month or one-year Treasury bills sold in the secondary market;
- (e) the indices for the one-year, two-year, three-year, five-year, seven-year, ten-year, twenty-year or thirty-year constant maturity yield for United States Treasury securities;
- ~~[(f) the index for the average cost of funds for FSLIC-insured institutions, for the New York district, as published by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board;]~~
- [(g)] the prime rate as published by The Wall Street Journal; and
- [(h) the indices for one-month, three-month, six month and one year London Interbank Offered Rate (LIBOR) as published in The Wall Street Journal.]

(g) the indices for one-month, three-month, six-month and twelve-month Secured Overnight Financing Rate (SOFR), published as “CME Term SOFR” rates by the CME Group Benchmark Administration Limited.

The indices under subdivisions (a) through (e) of this section are published and announced by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System in such publications as The Federal Reserve Bulletin, H.15, G.13, etc. With respect to these indices, where daily rates and weekly and monthly averages of such daily rates are published, this Part allows use of either the daily rate or the weekly or monthly average rate for such index. This Part also allows use of a rate such as a quarterly or semiannual rate calculated by averaging four or less of the subdivision (a) through (e) rates. In the event of split rate figures for the prime rate as published under subdivision ([g]f) of this section, the lending or banking institution shall use the low figure except where use of the high figure or an average of the two figures is provided by contract and disclosed to the borrower or customer.

Section 334.1 is amended to read as follows:

The following indices are approved by the superintendent for use in connection with variable rate junior mortgage loans made pursuant to Part 80 of this Title by licensees as defined thereunder, in connection with variable rate retail instalment credit agreements established pursuant to Part 91 of this Title by retail sellers or creditors as defined thereunder, and in connection with variable rate closed-end retail instalment contracts and obligations entered into pursuant to Part 92 of this Title by retail sellers or holders as defined thereunder:

- (a) the bank prime loan index;
- (b) the indices for one-month, three-month or six-month certificates of deposit sold in the secondary market;
- (c) the indices for the auction averages from the sale of United States three-month, six-month or one-year Treasury bills;
- (d) the indices for three-month, six-month or one-year Treasury bills sold in the secondary market;
- (e) the indices for the one-year, two-year, three-year, five-year, seven-year, ten-year, twenty-year or thirty-year constant maturity yield for United States Treasury securities; [and]
- (f) the prime rate as published in The Wall Street Journal[.]; and
- [(g) the indices for one-month, three-month, six-month and one year London Interbank Offered Rate (LIBOR) as published in The Wall Street Journal.]
- (g) the indices for one-month, three-month, six-month and twelve-month Secured Overnight Financing Rate (SOFR) published as “CME Term SOFR” rates by the CME Group Benchmark Administration Limited.

All the indices listed above, except (f), and (g) are published and announced by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System in such publications as The Federal Reserve Bulletin, H.15, G.13, etc. With respect to any indices listed under subdivisions (a) through (e) of this section which provide daily rates and also weekly and monthly averages of such daily rates, this Part allows use of either the daily rate or the weekly or monthly average rate for such index. In the event of split rate figures for the prime rate as published under subdivision (f) of this section, the licensee, retail seller or creditor, or retail seller or holder shall use the low figure except where use of the high figure or an average of the two figures is provided by contract and disclosed to the borrower or buyer. Except as provided above, averaging of index figures is prohibited.
