d. Describe how the company would respond to an immediate and material cash demand, such as one that could be triggered by a rating agency downgrade.
e. Describe means of raising cash other than disinvestment, such as lines of credit and issuing commercial paper. What restrictions, covenants, etc., limit the company’s ability to use these means? State the reasons why any such lines of credit are expected to be reliable, e.g., by describing the terms and conditions under which they may be canceled by the lender.
f. Describe any changes the company has implemented during the course of the most recent year to address stress liquidity (e.g., due to economic changes, changes in product mix or design, etc.).
2. With respect to reinsurance agreements, ceded or assumed:
a. Describe and quantify all reinsurance arrangements that have potential material impact on the company’s liquidity exposure. A definition of materiality should be included in your response.
b. Describe and quantify all reinsurance arrangements that include rating downgrade “put” provisions.
3. Does the company hold assets or engage in investment activities that could result in liquidity risks that are not readily apparent through a review of financial reporting schedules? If so, please describe in detail, including the extent that such assets are relied upon to support demand liabilities.
4. For the following questions, “large cash demand” is defined as equal to or greater than 10% of company surplus, and “institutional cash demand” is defined as cash value products of at least $10 million, under common control or ownership, for which the decision to access the cash is in a single person/entity.
a. Can the total of the company’s potential large and institutional cash demands, if any, have a material impact on the company’s cash position? (Treasuries are considered cash for this purpose.) A definition of materiality should be included in your response.
b. What impact can the potential capital losses from these demands have on the company’s capital and surplus?
5. Are any of the company’s assets pledged or encumbered for purposes other than to directly support its insurance liabilities (e.g., FHLB loans, etc.)?

	COMPLETED BY	SUPPORTING DOCUMENTATION
6. If yes, then please explain and also provide the amount of such assets.
a. To what extent would such assets impair the company’s financial flexibility in a stress liquidity scenario?
b. Describe all potential cash demands at the holding company level that can have a negative impact on the company’s liquidity position.
V. LEGAL AND REGULATORY REQUIREMENTS
1. Describe the procedures to ensure that management is informed of changes in laws.
