Date: January 22, 2024

To: All Domestic Property/Casualty Insurers Subject to Examination in 2023

From: Field Examinations Unit, Property Bureau

Re: First Day Letter; Examination Facilitation Request

Your Company is scheduled for an examination in the year 2024. The examination will be conducted as of December 31, 2023 and cover the time period from the last examination through December 31, 2023. Events subsequent to the “as of date” of the examination may be reviewed where deemed appropriate.

An examiner-in-charge (EIC) will be assigned to your Company and will contact you prior to the start of the examination.

Risk-Focused Examination

The examination of your Company will be conducted as a risk-focused examination in accordance with the NAIC Financial Examiners’ Handbook. This examination approach places emphasis on understanding your Company’s risks and exposures and methods of mitigating such risks.

The risk-focused approach requires that the examiner interview senior management of the Company to obtain an understanding of the organization, its structure, key activities and processes, etc. The examination team will conduct C-level interviews with some or all of the following:

Chief Executive Officer / President	Chief Information Officer
Member of Audit Committee	Chief Underwriting Officer
Chief Financial Officer/ Controller	Claims Manager/Chief Claims Officer
General Counsel	Director of Internal Audit
Chief Investment Officer	Enterprise Risk Manager/Chief Risk Management Officer
Chief Valuation Actuary	CPA Engagement Partner & Manager
Board Member

An agenda will be provided to the participants prior to each meeting. In addition, the Department's actuary will be contacting the Company to arrange an Actuarial Kick-off Meeting with the Company's Chief Actuarial Officer to be held in the Department's New York City office or via teleconference/video conference.
