NEW YORK STATE DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL SERVICES TAKES DISCIPLINARY ACTIONS AGAINST LICENSEES OR REGISTRANTS UNDER THE INSURANCE LAW

The New York State Department of Financial Services has taken disciplinary action against the following licensees and registrants. Those categorized as stipulations or consent orders have been agreed to by the licensee or registrant. Department actions that result from Department hearings are subject to judicial review and possible stay of enforcement.

HEARINGS

LICENSEE	ADDRESS	PENALTY
Andrew M. Fagan (Agent)	4136 S Fireside Drive Buffalo, NY 14221	Licenses Revoked
During the approximate period of May 2015 through November 2016, while engaged in the business of insurance as an agent for State Farm Insurance Company (“State Farm”), Respondent: (a) purposely and knowingly submitted materially misleading information to State Farm, consisting of online computer images offered in connection with applications for property insurance, giving the appearance that said properties had been physically inspected by an employee of Respondent’s insurance agency while operating under Respondent’s direction and control, when in fact said properties were not so physically inspected; (b) purposely and knowingly created and then submitted to State Farm, fraudulent customer banking information, (including fictitious bank account and routing numbers), for the purpose of giving the appearance that said customers had made direct premium payments to State Farm, when in fact they had not; (c) purposely and knowingly permitted one or more of Respondent insurance agency employees to sell State Farm insurance policies in a negligent manner by selling policies that failed to provide insureds with adequate protection from risks to which they were exposed; and (d) purposely and knowingly permitted the personal information of State Farm customers, (including driver’s license and social security numbers), to be stored at Respondent’s insurance agency location, absent the utilization of privacy and cyber security safeguards as required by State Farm. Respondent violated a prior Stipulation Respondent had entered into with the Department in 2014, wherein Respondent agreed to take all necessary steps to prevent the recurrence of similar violations, in that Respondent, during September 2017, failed to properly supervise an employee of Respondent insurance agency who submitted four automobile insurance applications to State Farm that the employee knew contained false underwriting information.

On September 28, 2019, Respondent was driving Respondent's Toyota automobile without insurance when Respondent was involved in an automobile crash with another vehicle insured by Travelers Indemnity Company ("Travelers"). Thereafter, on or about September 30, 2019, while engaged in the business of insurance as an agent for Travelers, Respondent added Respondent and Respondent's Toyota automobile to a Travelers automobile insurance policy belonging to another insured, without the insured's knowledge or consent. Furthermore, Respondent backdated the policy to September 5, 2019, therein attempting to obtain insurance coverage for Respondent and Respondent's Toyota automobile, before the crash, under the insured's Traveler's policy. Thereafter, in consequence of Respondent actions involving fraud, Travelers terminated Respondent's agent's appointment for cause effective February 4, 2020. [Order issued May 3, 2021.]
