The New York State Department of Financial Services seeks to build an equitable, transparent, and resilient financial system that benefits individuals and supports business. Through engagement, data-driven regulation and policy, and operational excellence, the Department and its employees are responsible for empowering consumers and protecting them from financial harm; ensuring the health of the entities we regulate; driving economic growth in New York through responsible innovation; and preserving the stability of the global financial system.

The Department of Financial Services is seeking candidates for the position of Human Resources Specialist 3 (Labor Relations) in Human Resources Management. Duties include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Exercises frequent oral and written communications with program managers, agency administrators, employees at all levels, and others to identify and resolve various existing or potential human resources problems;
- Provides advice and consultation to supervisors and managers to ensure proper interpretation and administration of contract provisions and avoid misunderstandings that may lead to employee dissatisfaction and grievances;
- Reviews and evaluates changes in negotiated agreements; and advises management of their impact on the labor relations program;
- Provides information concerning policies, procedures and interpretation and administration of various contract provisions to program managers and supervisors;
- Reviews and evaluates policies and procedures; and recommends and implements new and revised ones;
- Schedules and conducts grievance meetings at Step 1 and Step 2. Obtains all the necessary information to either resolve the grievance or write a complete decision. Identifies and reports to the Director any significant issues. Acts as agency liaison to GOER at Step 3 and beyond to provide additional information, as necessary;
- Conducts investigations into potential employee misconduct, which may involve interviewing witnesses, conducting interrogations, and reviewing pertinent evidence in order to make a recommendation regarding administrative action;
- Assists in carrying out the Department's discipline program, including suspending employees, issuing Notices of Discipline, scheduling and conducting Agency Level Review Meetings, preparing witnesses, and representing the Department in disciplinary arbitration hearings;
- Represents the Department at CSEA Expedited or Time and Attendance hearings, as well as PEF Expedited Suspension Review Proceedings;
- Processes and conducts performance evaluation appeals;
- Participates and serves as Management representative on labor management committees;

- Supports the development and implementation of the Department's performance management efforts, especially as it relates to the Department's Financial Services Examiner Traineeship program;
- Coordinates Unsatisfactory Performance Evaluation Appeal Board Hearings;
- Oversees the coordination of Employee Health Service Referrals, including researching issues involved, preparing EHS-707 and supporting referral data;
- Manages appeals process for Section 72 appeals, including arrangement of hearing officer, all communications, and may lead or assist in the administrative hearing presentation;
- Incumbent will have frequent contact with the Office of Employee Relations and the Department of Civil Service in resolving various employee and labor relations issues. In addition, incumbent may interact with the Office of the State Comptroller and occasionally meet with other agency representatives on matters of mutual concern;
- Supervises lower level professional and clerical staff; and
- Schedules and assigns work to subordinate staff; and adjusts workload to reflect changes. Monitors work progress and reviews completed work.

Preferred Qualifications

- Strong written and verbal communication abilities.
- Organizational and multi-tasking skills, with attention to detail.
- High degree of professionalism, confidentiality, and strong work ethic.

AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT: REASONABLE ACCOMMODATIONS

Under the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), the Department of Financial Services is required to provide reasonable accommodation for known physical or mental limitations of an otherwise qualified applicant with a disability if an accommodation would enable the applicant to perform the essential functions of the job. If the accommodation would constitute an undue hardship on the operations of the agency, the agency is not required to provide it.

All people with disabilities are encouraged to apply to all jobs for which they meet the minimum qualifications.
