The New York State Department of Financial Services seeks to build an equitable, transparent, and resilient financial system that benefits individuals and supports business. Through engagement, data-driven regulation and policy, and operational excellence, the Department and its employees are responsible for empowering consumers and protecting them from financial harm; ensuring the health of the entities we regulate; driving economic growth in New York through responsible innovation; and preserving the stability of the global financial system.

The Department of Financial Services is seeking candidates for the position of Assistant Deputy Superintendent for Virtual Currency Strategy in the Virtual Currency Unit within the Research and Innovation Division. The position reports to the Deputy Superintendent of Virtual Currency and provides technical expertise, guidance, and project management in support of the supervision of BitLicensees. As a key advisor, the position will collaborate with the Licensing and Examination and Monitoring teams as well as cross-functional teams and assist in the on-going delivery of the supervisory program.

Duties include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Manages the Unit's risk appetite process and risk-based examination and monitoring program;
- Coordinates the on-going development and training of members of the VC Unit in the implementation of the risk-based examination and monitoring program;
- Maintains a dynamic risk catalog across BitLicensee business activities;
- Stays abreast of trends in virtual currency markets, including the development of new products and services, virtual currency linked investments, the underlying technologies, data privacy, anti-money laundering initiatives, and updating stakeholders and agency management on a periodic basis;
- Conducts risk evaluations of new and emerging virtual currency-related products and services. e.g. virtual currency markets, blockchain networks, and decentralized finance platforms;
- Supports the development and implementation of internal and external VCE-related guidance;
- Provides advice to the Licensing and Examination and Monitoring Teams for ongoing monitoring and periodic examinations;
- Collaborates with specialty teams as needed and assists in the development, implementation, and interpretation of new regulatory industry guidance in the virtual currency area;

- Advises Deputy Superintendent of Virtual Currency on all matters falling within the scope of assigned responsibility and making necessary recommendations; and
- Other duties as assigned.

Preferred Qualifications

- Bachelors degree and at least 7 years' experience in traditional finance, FinTech, or consulting related to digital assets with direct experience preferred.
- Compliance, legal, or other relevant experience on matters related to virtual currencies, digital currencies, blockchain, distributed ledger technology.
- Knowledge and experience related to the Department's virtual currency regulations.

Appointment method:

This is an appointment to a position in the exempt jurisdictional class. As such, the incumbent of this position would serve at the pleasure of the appointing authority.
