Appointment Status: This is an appointment to a position in the exempt jurisdictional class.

Appointment to this position is pending Governor Appointment's Office and Division of Budget approval.

The New York State Department of Financial Services seeks to build an equitable, transparent, and resilient financial system that benefits individuals and supports business. Through engagement, data-driven regulation and policy, and operational excellence, the Department and its employees are responsible for empowering consumers and protecting them from financial harm; ensuring the health of the entities we regulate; driving economic growth in New York through responsible innovation; and preserving the stability of the global financial system.

The Banking Division supervises the activities of 1,332 banking and non-depository financial institutions with assets of $3.3 trillion, including commercial banks, credit unions, money services businesses, foreign bank branches and agencies, mortgage bankers, and licensed lenders.

The Executive Deputy reports directly to the Superintendent of Financial Services, and is responsible for all legislative, regulatory and supervisory issues, as well as licensing and enforcement-related matters, pertaining to the operating units of the Banking Division. The Executive Deputy determines policy and appropriate supervisory actions undertaken by the Department and represents the Superintendent and the Department in meetings with governmental agencies, and industry trade groups. This position requires direct contact with the Superintendent of Financial Services, Deputy and Senior Deputy Superintendents, staff and field examiners on a daily basis, as well as significant contact with other state and federal regulatory agencies, foreign regulatory agencies and central banks, and the regulated institutions. Specific duties include:

- Responsible for overseeing the Banking Division's day-to-day operations;
- Acts as chief advisor to the Superintendent on a wide range of supervisory, transactional, regulatory, legislative, policy, enforcement and other matters related to the Banking Division;
- Ensures that the banking-related programs of the Governor and Superintendent are effectively and expeditiously implemented;
- Works closely with Executive management in other Divisions, including the General Counsel's Office, Climate Division, Cyber Division, External Affairs, and others, on banking-related decisions, projects, and initiatives;
- Serves as the Banking Division's Executive contact and liaison with the Governor's Office, the Legislature, and other agencies on matters requiring senior level input and/or action;
- Leads or participates in meetings and conferences, and generally interacts, with regulated entities or their representatives, industry organizations, the Conference of State Bank Supervisors, other domestic and foreign governmental agencies, such as the Federal Reserve, the FDIC, and the NCUA, and the public on banking-related matters.

- Responsible for creating a staffing strategy for the Division and taking an active role in the recruitment process.
- Works closely with the Chief Technology and Operations Officer to implement the Department-wide technology transformation and process redesign within the Division, leading change management initiatives to operationalize the transformation.
- Other duties as assigned.

Preferred Qualifications

- At least 10 years of relevant work experience in the banking and financial services industry;
- At least 5 years of managerial supervision;
- Knowledge of banking regulation and New York Banking Law;
- Demonstrated ability to manage human capital and other resources to support short and long-term priorities;
- Superior written and oral communication skills, and strong analytical skills;
- JD preferred but not required.

Appointment method:

This is an appointment to a position in the exempt jurisdictional class. As such, the incumbent of this position would serve at the pleasure of the appointing authority.
