Pursuant to the First Amendment to Part 2 of Title 23 of the Official Compilation of Codes, Rules and Regulations of the State of New York (23 NYCRR §2.19), you may object to having the Hearing conducted via videoconference by sending a written notice of the objection to the hearing officer by first class mail or overnight mail to Videoconference Coordinator, Office of General Counsel, New York State Department of Financial Services, One State Street, New York, NY 10004, or via electronic mail to VideoHearings@dfs.ny.gov. .

The denial of your applications should be upheld on the grounds that you have demonstrated untrustworthiness and/or incompetence to act as an insurance producer based on the following:

1 In your original application for a license to act as a life agent and for a license to act as a life broker, submitted to the Department on or about May 6, 2019, you answered in the negative to Question 2, which asked "Have you ever been convicted of a misdemeanor, had a judgment withheld or deferred, or are you currently charged with committing a misdemeanor?" when, in fact, at the time the application was submitted, you had been charged with committing a misdemeanor in the Nassau County District Court, State of New York.

2. In your original application for a license to act as a life agent and for a license to act as a life broker, submitted to the Department on or about May 6, 2019, you answered in the negative to Question 3, which asked "Have you ever been convicted of a felony, had a judgment withheld or deferred, or are you currently charged with committing a felony?" when, in fact, at the time the application was submitted, you had been charged with committing a felony in the Nassau County District Court, State of New York.

3. In your relicensing application for a license to act as a life agent, submitted to the Department on or about August 30, 2021, you answered in the negative to Question 2, which asked "Since the execution and filing of last application, have you been convicted of a crime, had a judgment withheld or deferred, or are you currently charged with committing a crime?" when, in fact, at the time the application was submitted, you had pled guilty to a misdemeanor on November 4, 2020, in the County Court of the State of New York, Nassau County, and were pending sentence.

4. In connection with the Department's investigation of the license application referenced in paragraph 3 of this Notice of Hearing, the Department sent you investigatory letters dated September 14, 2022, September 21, 2022, October 19, 2022, and November 9, 2022, requiring you to submit information and documentation. You failed to respond to the Department letters dated October 19, 2022 and November 9, 2022, and failed to fully respond to the Department letters dated September 14, 2022 and September 21, 2022, thereby hampering and impeding the Department's investigation.

5. Such other and further evidence relevant to your qualifications and fitness for the licenses sought as may be presented at the hearing.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE that the Hearing is being held pursuant to Sections 304-a, 305, and 306 of the Financial Services Law and that notice thereof is being given to you in accordance with Section 304 of the Financial Services Law. Your attention is directed to a statement in plain language, attached hereto, entitled "Summary of Hearing Procedures," summarizing the provisions of Title 23, Part 2 of the Official Compilation of Codes, Rules and Regulations of the State of New York (23 NYCRR 2). This statement contains important information concerning your rights and the Department's hearing procedures and should be read carefully. A copy of 23 NYCRR §2.19 is attached hereto; a copy of the balance of 23 NYCRR 2 will be furnished upon request. Should you fail to appear at the Department's Virtual Hearing Center at the time fixed for the online virtual hearing, or any adjourned date thereof, your request for a hearing will be deemed withdrawn, and the denial of your applications will be upheld.

SUMMARY OF HEARING PROCEDURES

(Summary of Hearing Procedures for Adjudicatory Proceedings Before the Department of Financial Services as Set Forth in Title 23, Part 2 of the Official Compilation of Codes, Rules and Regulations of the State of New York (23 NYCRR 2), and as Required by Section 301(3) of the State Administrative Procedure Act)

1. The Hearing will be conducted and administered in compliance with the State Administrative Procedure Act and the Financial Services Law, and will be held before an impartial hearing officer who will make a Report of findings, conclusions, and recommendations to the Superintendent or the Superintendent's designee.

2. You must be ready, and prepared with your evidence, to present your case on the hearing date.

3. You may be represented by an attorney at the hearing.

4. Interpreter services shall be available for deaf persons, upon advance request, at no charge. Such request should be made as soon as possible by contacting the Department attorney who signed the Citation/Notice of Hearing.

5. You may file a written answer to the Citation/Notice of Hearing. If you do so, it should be delivered at least two days before the hearing date to the Department attorney who signed the Citation/Notice of Hearing. You will have a full opportunity at the hearing to dispute or explain any charges made against you in the Citation/Notice of Hearing whether or not you file an answer.

6. You may present evidence and have witnesses testify at the hearing. If you believe a Witness will not appear voluntarily and you do not have an attorney representing you, you may request the hearing officer to furnish you with a subpoena to compel the witness' attendance. If the hearing officer issues the subpoena, the service of the subpoena upon the witness and payment of all required fees is your responsibility.

7. You may request a hearing officer's report and an opportunity to comment on it in writing before the Superintendent acts on the report. The request must be made to the hearing officer on the record prior to the close of the hearing.

8. Prior to the commencement, a hearing may be postponed upon your request upon a written application to the Department official who issued the Citation/Notice of Hearing. The application may be granted upon a showing of good cause at the discretion of the Department official who issued the Citation/Notice of Hearing.

9. A hearing in progress may be adjourned by the hearing officer at your request for good cause shown or upon consent of all parties. If you request that a hearing in progress be adjourned for good cause shown, you must present documentary evidence as the hearing officer deems appropriate. The factors to be considered in determining good cause shown include but are not limited to the illness of a party, witness or attorney, the temporary absence of a witness, the opportunity to obtain an attorney, the actual engagement of an attorney in a court proceeding, and the number and nature of previous requests for adjournment.

10. If you do not appear at a hearing requested upon the denial of an application for license, your request for a hearing will be deemed withdrawn.

11. If you do not appear or are not represented at the hearing on a Citation, the hearing will take place as scheduled and a decision on the charges will be made. The decision may result in the revocation or suspension of your licenses and the denial of any pending applications, and such other action as may be permitted by law, including the imposition of monetary fines.

12. If you do not appear at a hearing, the hearing may be reopened upon a written application, if you satisfy the hearing officer that there are valid reasons for your failure to appear or your failure to request an adjournment or postponement and you have a meritorious case. If you do appear at the hearing, the hearing may be reopened on written request to the hearing officer if you can show newly discovered evidence or other compelling reason for such reopening. The application to reopen must be made within one hundred twenty (120) days from the effective date of the Superintendent's or the Superintendent's designee's decision.

13. Once a decision is made against you, you may, if you wish, take an appeal to the courts. This appeal must be made within four months from the date the decision was effective. It should be emphasized that your right to take an appeal is not connected in any way with your right to reopen the hearing as described in paragraph 12 and an application to reopen does not extend your time to take an appeal to the courts.

NEW YORK STATE
DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL SERVICES
FIRST AMENDMENT TO 23 NYCRR 2

RULES GOVERNING THE PROCEDURES FOR ADJUDICATORY PROCEEDINGS BEFORE THE DEPARTMENT OF FINANCIAL SERVICES

I, Adrienne A. Harris, Superintendent of Financial Services of the State of New York, pursuant to the authority granted by Sections 102, 201, 202, 302 and 305 of the Financial Services Law and Section 301 of the State Administrative Procedure Act, do hereby promulgate the First Amendment to Part 2 of Title 23 of the Official Compilation of Codes, Rules and Regulations of the State of New York, to take effect upon the publication of the Notice of Adoption in the State Register, to read as follows:

(ALL MATTER IS NEW)

Section 2.19 is added to read as follows:

§ 2.19 Hearings conducted by videoconference.

(a) A hearing shall be conducted by videoconference, unless a hearing officer determines at the hearing officer's discretion, or upon a finding of good cause based upon an application submitted in accordance with subdivision (b) of this section, to conduct a hearing where all or some of the parties, witnesses, and the hearing officer are physically present at the same location. When a hearing is conducted by videoconference, the parties, witnesses, and the hearing officer do not need to be physically present at the same location.

(b) A party may object to a hearing being conducted by videoconference by sending a written notice of the objection to the hearing officer by first class mail, overnight mail, or electronic mail to an address designated by the Department and posted on the Department's website. The written notice of objection must be received by the hearing officer within five calendar days prior to the return date set forth in the notice of action or proposed action that was served or issued by a party as provided in Financial Services Law section 304.

(c) The hearing officer may determine not to conduct a hearing or any portion thereof, or not to have a party or witness testify, by videoconference upon a finding that a timely written objection to conducting a hearing pursuant to this Part by videoconference submitted in accordance with subdivision (b) of this section establishes that:

(1) a party's due process rights would be best served by all or some of the parties and witnesses, and the hearing officer being physically present at the same location; or

(2) circumstances render a hearing, or a portion thereof, conducted pursuant to this Part by videoconference impractical.

(d) All provisions of this Part that are not inconsistent with the specific provisions of this section shall apply to hearings conducted by videoconference. For purposes of section 2.14(b) of this Part, the term hearing room shall mean videoconference when a hearing is conducted by videoconference.
