This position has a strategic focus on examiner development, applied risk analysis, and post-exam feedback. The incumbent will reinforce supervisory best practices through field-based coaching, report review, and targeted skill-building—all informed by real-time lessons learned from ongoing and completed examinations. This role supports the development of examiners' competencies in evaluating asset quality, earnings, liquidity, capital adequacy, interest rate risk, and loan review, and ensures the alignment of field practices with DFS expectations. The position also contributes to building a more robust in-house training capability aligned with supervisory priorities. Duties include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Establish and implements a "train the trainer" model, to provide Examiner supervisors with the knowledge, skills and abilities needed to effectively develop staff competencies
- Acts as subject matter expert in examinations to observe and assess examiner job-based knowledge in applying risk assessment methodologies across key risk areas.
- Supports examiners in evaluating earnings, capital, liquidity, interest rate risk, and loan review by guiding their analysis of risk components and assisting in the drafting of preliminary examination comments.
- Reinforces classroom-based training principles during examinations by helping examiners apply supervisory concepts, analytical techniques, and regulatory standards in real-time field scenarios.
- Acts as escalation point during on-site or remote engagements, to provide real-time feedback, guidance, and informal coaching to examiner staff Document feedback on performance, ability to demonstrate concepts and independent readiness within learning development tool.
- Works with supervisors and managers to identify trends and gaps in examiner understanding and translate those into actionable recommendations for follow-up learning.

- Supports the examination team by enhancing examiner readiness and improving fieldwork quality and consistency.
- Reviews draft Reports of Examination to ensure findings are clearly articulated, risk assessments are well supported, and DFS standards are upheld.
- Works with the DFS Training office to develop concise job aids, case studies, workshops and refreshers based on identified training gaps from exam reviews.
- Collaborates with division leadership and HR to enhance onboarding, mentoring, and long-term examiner capability-building efforts.
- Willingness and ability to travel up to 30%, including overnight; and
- Other duties as assigned.

Preferred Qualifications

- Eleven years of specialized work experience, which includes conducting or reviewing financial institution examinations, with focus on safety and soundness principles. Two years of experience must have been at a managerial level.
 - Substitutions: Associate degree may substitute for two years of specialized experience; bachelor's degree may substitute for four years of specialized experience; master's degree may substitute for five years of specialized experience; J.D. may substitute for six years of specialized experience; Ph.D. may substitute for seven years of specialized experience
